

Jefferson County Historic Landmarks Commission

May 22, 1992

Present: Miller, Theriault and Cayle.

Theriault reported he will be attending seminar in Morgantown on "Focus on Heritage Tourism" May 30.

A map of Civil War sights in Jefferson County is being prepared.

The William Grubb Farm has been designated as landmark by County Commission. It was agreed to ask Mr and Mrs Perez, owners and owners of future designations, to pay $50.00 for plaque.

Cayle reported visiting property on Crane's Lane to be developed by Marcus Enterprise. Originally part of Robert Warthington lead-grant, the farm is also being examined by Thunderbird Archeological Associates, Inc., Woodstock, Virginia.

Greg Lane, County Commissioner, reported in their meeting that Michael Taylor has resigned from this commission.

Nancy Cayle