

The Jefferson County Landmarks Commission met at the home of Dr. Washington on Monday, March 22nd at 10:00 a.m. Those present were Miss Stanley, Mrs. Riley, Capt. Schley, Dr. Washington and Mr. Franzen.

It was reported that Miss Linnie Schley was writing up historical data for Asten Pool Farm and the Locust Ridge Farm.

Miss Stanley recommended that the Commission process the balance of pre-revolutionary places before proceeding with places that postdate the revolution.

Capt. Schley reported that he had submitted on March 10th, a budget of $800.00 to the County Commission for the next fiscal year with the provision that supplementary funds might be requested for clerical help. There is at present $198.00 left to last until July 1st.

Capt. Schley brought to the members attention that there is a group of citizens favoring zoning for whom Saul Schiffman is acting as Treasurer and to whom donations to further zoning can be addressed.

The Commission members plan to visit Belvedere on Monday next at 9:45 a.m., Springland at 10:45 a.m. and Vinton at 11:30 a.m. The members to assemble at the home of Miss Stanley.
